

THE HOLOCAUST AS A STARTING POINT

Beginner training Northern Ireland

May 20th to 21st, 2026

Location: Belfast

Training venue

Crumlin Road Gaol Visitor Attraction and Conference Centre

Participants

30 educators

Working language

English

Coordinators and moderators

Jayne Simms, Education Authority

Denver Charles, History Teachers' Association of Northern Ireland

Tony Gallagher, Queen's university Belfast

Bruno Boyer, Mémorial de la Shoah

Pedagogical advisor

Béatrice Munaro, Mémorial de la Shoah

This training is financially supported by:

Funded by:

This training is organised by:

Wednesday , May 20th 2026

9:00	Opening Ice-breaking activity
9:30	Workshop Antisemitism today and yesterday Béatrice Munaro, Mémorial de la Shoah
11:00	Coffee break
11:15	Historical lecture The Nazi ideology Frédéric Sallée, Mémorial de la Shoah
12:45	Lunch
13:45	Historical lecture Fundamentals of the Holocaust (Part 1) Frédéric Sallée, Mémorial de la Shoah
15:15	Coffee break
15:30	Workshop How to use photographs of the Holocaust in the classroom? Frédéric Sallée, Mémorial de la Shoah
17:00	End of the working day
19:00	Dinner at restaurant

Thursday, May 21st 2026

9.00	Trainees' debrief about the previous day
9.30	Historical Lecture United Kingdom, Ireland and the Holocaust Pamela Linden Aveyard, Queen's University
11.00	Coffee break
11.15	Lecture Challenging points in History between Great Britain and Ireland until 1969 Marie Coleman, Queen's University
12:30	Lunch
13.30	Workshop Once upon a time in Northern Ireland Jayne Simms, Education Authority
15:00	Coffee break
15:15	Workshop Building up a common Learning activity Béatrice Munaro, Mémorial de la Shoah
16.30	Site visit Belfast Remembrance Tony Gallagher, Queen's University Belfast
18:00	End of the training